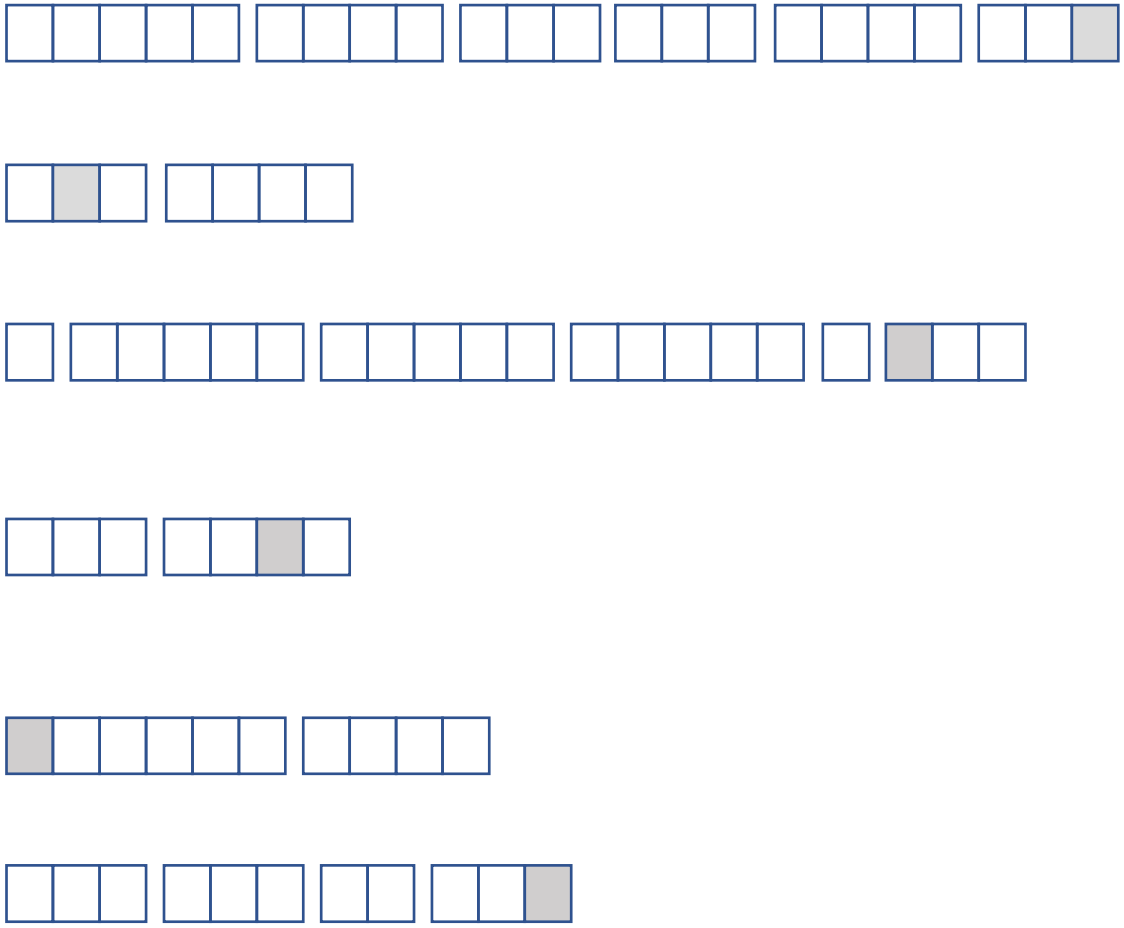
Waksworld Television

Back in the 90s, there were lots of very famous TV shows, both here and in the alternate reality 'Waksworld'. Waksworld had all the shows we did, but the titles and plotlines were slightly different. For example, in our world we had FRIENDS. In Waksworld they had a 'sitcom about a group of metal detectorists who hang about in a coffee shop in New York. (7)': FINDERS. Can you find the titles of these Waksworld shows and add them to the grid? The highlighted letters will spell out the name of Waksworld's most famous 90s star!



Sitcom about a team of scientists forced to relocate from Philadelphia to LA at short notice trying to raise funds for a more advanced coral research boat. (5,4,3,3,4,3)

A coming of age sitcom set in the late 1950s following the exploits of the fictional younger sister of a formula one star who is exceptionally gifted at throwing things. (3,4)

Actor Joe 'Propeller' Pollack finds himself in danger when things go wrong while filming a mid-air stunt scene for his cookery comedy 'Let's Flambé!' (named for Joe's catchphrase). (1,5,5,5,1,3)

The adventures of an ennobled man who works as a psychiatrist by day and strikes terror into the hearts of criminals everywhere by night, this thinly veiled rip-off of Batman set in Seattle is named for our pretentious hero's vigilante alter-ego. (3,4)

Series following the lives and loves of a team of highly capable Boston lawyers who remain placid no matter what the provocation. (6,4)

Barbie's boyfriend roams the streets of Chicago with a huge deer. Hilarity ensues. (3,3,2,3)

Check your solution spoiler free online bit.ly/ptgwwcii

Puzzle Trail
puzzletrail.games